About the Eminent Speaker

A highly decorated Indian Army veteran, Major General A. K. Chaturvedi has served the nation for over 38 years. With academic credentials including a B. Tech from CME Pune, M. Tech from IIT Madras, MMS from Osmania University, and an M.Phil. in Strategic Studies, his illustrious career spans various leadership roles. These include the Assistant Chief of Integrated Defense Staff, the Chief of Staff of a Tri-Service Command, and ADG (Personnel) at the Ministry of Defense.

Post-retirement, he continues to contribute as an author, strategic thinker, and leadership mentor, holding senior positions in think tanks like CLAWS, STRIVE, VIMARSH, and Eco Development Foundation.

Highlights of the Session

Legacy Rooted in Values

Major General Chaturvedi emphasized that true legacy transcends material success—it is defined by values, integrity, and the impact left on future generations. He urged students to develop emotional, intellectual, and ethical strengths to lead balanced, impactful lives.

Learning from Icons

He drew inspiration from historical and contemporary leaders:

- Maharana Pratap – Symbol of resilience and sovereignty
- Chanakya – Master strategist with unwavering national commitment
- Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam – Visionary of a self-reliant India
- Anand Kumar (Super 30) – Champion for the education of the underprivileged
- Brigadier Mohammad Usman – Martyr of integrity and courage
- Chami Murmur – Eco-warrior promoting reforestation
- Guru Gobind Singh Ji – Embodiment of selfless dedication and justice

These figures, he noted, exemplify how sincerity, dedication, and integrity can overcome challenges and leave a timeless mark on society.
