WHEREAS, both institutions recognize the need for collaboration to enhance academic, research, and professional competencies and have agreed to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to define the framework for their collaboration.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES AND MUTUAL COVENANTS HEREINAFTER CONTAINED, THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1.0.Objectives of collaboration

1.1 To cooperate and work together to improve the caliber of instruction and training, including finding field trip opportunities, hosting seminars and guest lectures, and planning conferences and symposia.

1.2 To facilitate professor and student exchanges across institutions for brainstorming sessions for conferences, workshops and seminars.

1.3 To give instructors and students the chance to make the most of the knowledge and resources offered by both universities, such as the IQAC cell and laboratory facilities.

1.4 To exchange knowledge resources within the framework that has been agreed upon, such as the Central Library and other digital resources.

1.5 To collaborate and create research initiatives for faculty for execution at the institutional, national, and/or international level, such as patents, Scopus/UGC care and Pubmed publications.

1.6 To exchange knowledge and experience in areas such as accreditation, management, and administration, such as Visiting Professors, Governing Council Members, Examination Panels, NAAC and NIRF.

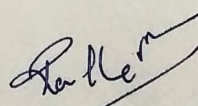

1.7 To carry out more academic and research endeavors in collaboration for the advantage of both parties, including research financing and national and international grants from governmental, non-governmental, and non-profit organizations.

2.0 Intention

This MoU aims to document the parties' understanding about the pursuit of academic and scientific endeavors that may be decided to be carried out solely by the Parties in cooperation. Following the identification and decision to proceed with the collaborative programs, the parties will sign a detailed agreement outlining all applicable terms and conditions for each collaborative activity before it is put into action.

3.0 Financial Commitment

Neither institution shall incur any financial obligation under this agreement. Applications for financial support towards the co-operation and individual activities planned under this agreement will be transparent and undertaken with mutual consent. Other sources of finances raised to support these joint projects can be pursued with the knowledge of the other through intimation in writing.

4.0 Implementation and monitoring

4.1. The parties hereto agree to form a four-member steering committee, with two members chosen by each party, to work toward completing and coordinating jointly agreed-upon programs and projects and to draft activity-specific agreements for them. At least once every six months, the steering committee will meet.

4.2. The Steering Committee shall ensure that the terms and conditions outlined in the Agreement(s) are followed, review the progress of cooperative activities under the MoU on a regular basis, and provide a status report to each institution's top management twice a year.

5.0 Terms and termination

The MoU shall come into effect from the date of signing by the parties or, if it is signed on different dates, the date of the last signature.

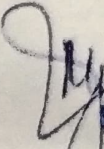

5.1 In case the MoU is not working up to the satisfaction, some amendments can be brought with mutual agreement at any time by way of a letter of understanding or agreement signed by the chief administrative officer of each contracting institution and shall be appended hereto.

5.2 By signing this MoU, the Parties acknowledge that they have read, understood, and intend to abide by its terms.

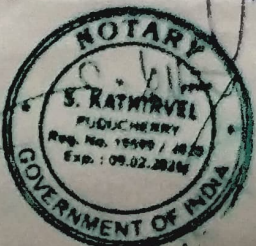

5.3 This MoU shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years subject to the availability of funds, after which it may be renewed automatically. Either party reserves the right to terminate this MoU upon six months written notice to the other.

6.0 Notices

Any notice that must be given in accordance with the terms of this MoU must be in writing and will be deemed properly served if it is delivered in person to the Nodal Officer of the relevant institution or sent by registered mail to the other party at the most recent address specified.
