Circular

In view of the re-opening of the University and resuming of the classes in the physical/blended mode in phase-wise manner and in compliance of the DCI guidelines dated 02.12.2020, it has been decided to resume the classes of BDS in physical mode as per the given below schedule:

S.No.	Programme	Date of reporting in the College
1	BDS Second year	07.12.2020
2	BDS Third year	09.12.2020
3	BDS Fourth year	11.12.2020

As per the guidelines issued from the Government, the hostel students shall undergo quarantine upon reporting the college and RT-PCR test for COVID-19 thereafter. The students coming from local area shall have to undergo RT-PCR test for COVID-19 upon first day of reporting to the University. The students shall be allowed to attend the classes only in case their COVID-19 test report is negative. The Principal of the Dental College shall assure that the guidelines issued by the Dental Council of India vide its letter no. DE-22-ACADEMIC/BDS/2020/4332 dated 02.12.2020 in regard of preventive measures to be followed in the working spaces are strictly followed.

For the convenience of the students, the facility of RT-PCR test is available at the TMU Hospital at the subsidized rate of Rs 700/- and the report of the test shall be given to them on very same day. Therefore, students are suggested to give their samples for COVID-19 test in TMU Hospital which will be economic and convenient for them.

This is issued with the approval of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor.
