Circular

In view of re-opening of the University and resuming of the classes in the physical/blended mode in phase-wise manner, the University has decided to start the classes of following programmes being offered by the respective college/department in physical/blended mode as per the following details:

S.No.	College/Department	Date of reporting in the College
1.	Pharmacy: Pharm.D (2 nd year to final year), and D.Pharm (final year)	16.12.2020
2.	Nursing: B.Sc. (Nuring), 02 nd and 3 rd year P.BSc. (Nursing) 02 nd year	16.12.2020

As per the guidelines issued from the Government, the hostel students shall undergo quarantine upon reporting the college and RT-PCR test for COVID-19 thereafter. The students coming from local area shall have to undergo RT-PCR test for COVID-19 upon first day of reporting to the University. The students shall be allowed to attend the classes only in case their COVID-19 test report is negative.

For the convenience of the students, the facility of RT-PCR test is available at the TMU Hospital at the subsidized rate of Rs 700/- and the report of the test shall be given to them on very same day. Therefore, students are suggested to give their samples for COVID-19 test in TMU Hospital which will be economical and convenient for them.

The Principals of the above colleges shall assure that the guidelines issued by UGC vide letter no.14-8/2020 (CPP-II) dated 05.11.2020 in view of the re-opening of the Universities are followed and the working spaces are sanitized and physical distancing & face-cover/mask are made essential at all times in the work place and. Also, thermal scanning of the students will be done on daily basis upon entering the college. Further, the students shall bring the consent/undertaking form (attached here-with) duly filled and signed by the parents/legal guardian and submit to the concerned Principal.

The College Principals shall submit the report of the students reporting in the College on daily basis in the prescribed format (attached here-with).

This is issued with the approval of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor.
